

CORT PÜ INALT DEL REGISPÄTS TALOSSAN

UPPERMOST CORT OF THE KINGDOM OF TALOSSA

JUDICIAL RULES

April 26, 2023

The Cort pü Inalt, having convened, hereby unanimously adopt and promulgate the following Judicial rule:

Rule 5. Appeals, Generally

- (a) Time to take an appeal from a final order or judgment.
 - (i) An appeal as of right from a final order or judgment must be taken within 45 days after entry of the final order or judgment appealed from by filing with the Clerk of the Cort a notice of appeal.
 - (ii) An appeal by permission from a final order or judgment must be taken within 45 days after entry of the final order or judgment appealed from by filing with the Clerk of the Cort an application for leave to appeal a final order or judgment.
 - (iii) Within 10 days of the filing of a timely notice of appeal or application for leave to appeal a final order or judgment, any party whose interests are adverse to such notice or application may file with the Clerk of the Cort a notice of cross appeal or an application for leave to cross-appeal a final order or judgment.
 - (iv) A notice of appeal (or cross appeal) or an application for leave to appeal (or cross-appeal) a final order or judgment filed with the Clerk of the Cort after the allotted time will be dismissed as untimely without exception.
- (b) Time to take an interlocutory appeal from a nonfinal order.
 - (i) An interlocutory appeal as of right from a nonfinal order must be taken within 14 days of the appealed from decision by filing with the Clerk of the Cort a notice of interlocutory appeal.
 - (ii) An interlocutory appeal by permission from a nonfinal order must be taken within 14 days of the appealed from decision by filing with the Clerk of the Cort an application for leave to appeal an interlocutory order.

- (iii) Within four days of the filing of a timely notice of interlocutory appeal or application for leave to appeal an interlocutory order, any party whose interests are adverse to such notice or application may file with the Clerk of the Court a notice of interlocutory cross appeal or an application for leave to cross-appeal an interlocutory order.
- (iv) A notice of interlocutory appeal (or cross appeal) or an application for leave to appeal (or cross appeal) an interlocutory order filed with the Clerk of the Court after the allotted time will be dismissed as untimely without exception.
- (v) Notwithstanding the provisions of this subpart, where a party contemporaneously objects to a decision or nonfinal order of the lower court, and the objection specifies the basis for challenging the decision or nonfinal order, the time to take an appeal, whether as of right or by permission, is tolled until a final order or judgment has been rendered, and the issue preserved for review should that party seek appellate review of a final order or judgment in accordance with Rule 5 (a).

This Rule is effective immediately upon promulgation.